INTRODUCTION

This Introduction, the Customer Service Information, the General Definitions, General Conditions, General Exclusions, Sections, Section Extensions, the Schedule and any Endorsements all form part of this Policy.

In return for the payment of premium stated in the Schedule, We agree to insure You in respect of a valid claim under this Policy as more fully defined in Sections 1 – 4 (as applicable), and as stated in the Schedule, subject to this introduction, the Customer Service Information, the General Definitions, General Conditions, General Exclusions, Sections, Section Extensions, the Schedule and any Endorsements.

This Policy should be kept in a safe place. You may need to refer to it if You have to make a claim. It is recommended that You retain details of Your Employers' Liability Policy for at least 40 years.

Wherever words appear in Bold in this Policy they will have the meaning shown in the General Definitions on pages 6-7 or as otherwise stated in any particular section or the Schedule.

CUSTOMER SERVICE INFORMATION

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT HOW WE WILL DEAL WITH CLAIMS UNDER THIS POLICY AND THE INFORMATION YOU HAVE GIVEN US. PLEASE READ THIS CAREFULLY.

Information You have given us

In deciding to accept this Policy and in setting the terms and premium, We have relied on the information You have given Us. You must take care when answering any questions We ask by ensuring that all information provided is accurate and complete.

If We establish that You deliberately or recklessly provided Us with false or misleading information We will treat Your Policy as if it never existed and decline all claims. We may not return premium already paid by You in this situation.

If We establish that You provided us with false, incomplete or misleading information, it can adversely affect Your Policy and any claim.

For example:

- where We could have accepted the risk and offered You a Policy but We would have charged a higher premium, We may only pay a percentage of any claim that You make under the Policy. We would do this by considering the premium We actually charged as a percentage of the higher premium We would have charged and then paying You the same percentage of any claim.

So, as an example: if the premium We actually charged was £250 and the higher premium We would have charged was £1,000, then the premium We actually charged represents 25% of the higher premium We would have charged and We shall only pay 25% of any claim;

- We may treat this Policy as if it had never existed and refuse to pay all claims and return the premium, subject to a deduction for any commission paid to Your insurance broker. We will only do this if the false, incomplete or misleading information means that We provided You with insurance cover when We would not otherwise have offered it at all had the risk been fairly presented;
- if We would have written the risk on different terms had it been fairly presented, We may amend the Policy to include these terms. We may apply these amended terms as if they were already in place before a claim is made;
- We may cancel Your Policy in accordance with its cancellation provisions.

We will write to You if We:

- intend to treat Your Policy as if it never existed; or
- amend the terms of Your Policy; or
- reduce Your claim in accordance with the above.

If You become aware that information You have given Us is inaccurate or incomplete, You must inform Us without delay.
