Where am I covered?

You are covered at the risk address shown on your schedule. This includes garages, outbuildings and sheds built on a permanent foundation within 400 metres of the land belonging to your holiday home and used for domestic and clerical business purposes only, unless otherwise agreed by us. Temporary removal of contents is covered within the UK subject to the limits, terms and conditions within the policy wording.

What are my obligations?

Before cover starts

- Disclose all facts accurately and in full.
- Ensure the cover offered is right for you and take note of any significant or unusual policy conditions, exclusions or endorsements.

Once you have purchased the policy

- Check your statement of fact and schedule are correct.
- Provide any documents requested, this may be information relating to the property history, valuations or no claims bonus.
- Take all reasonable care and attention to limit loss, damage or injury.
- Comply with any policy terms, conditions and endorsements specified on the schedule.

During the policy

- Let us know if there are any changes in circumstances which may affect the policy, including but not limited to; moving house, having work carried out at the property, your holiday home becoming occupied, or any increase in the value of your contents or in the rebuilding cost of your holiday home.
- Ensure all existing security is put into operation and maintained.
- Ensure the property is checked and inspected internally, on a monthly basis, and all waste including accumulated mail is removed.
- Switch off and drain the water system, except where you have a central heating system as detailed within the endorsements.
- Switch off electricity and gas supplies, unless you rely on these for an intruder alarm or central heating system.
- Hot water pipes and tanks should be adequately insulated.
- Loft access must be left open if the heating is left on.
- Buildings must be kept in a good state of repair.

In the event of a claim

- Check your summary of limits and schedule to make sure you are covered before you register a claim.
- Take all reasonable care to retrieve any lost or stolen property.
- Notify the claims department as soon as possible.
- Provide your details, as well as a crime reference number if applicable.
- Keep any damaged items for inspection to be carried out.
- Take reasonable steps to prevent further damage or loss to your holiday home and contents.
- Pay any excesses applicable to the policy.

When and how do I pay?

The premium can be paid in full by credit or debit card as a one-off payment. Your insurance broker may be able to offer you a payment plan by monthly direct debit on annual policies.

When does my policy start and end?

Your insurance policy will start on DD/MM/YYYY at 00:00 and end on DD/MM/YYYY at 00:00.

How do I cancel the contract?

You can cancel the policy at any time by contacting your insurance broker. Cancellation after the 'cooling-off' period may be subject to broker administration fees.

If no claims have been made on the policy (by you or a third party) and there are no open claims at the point of cancellation, you will receive a refund for the remaining days of cover.

If a claim has been made by you or a third party, you will not be entitled to a refund and the full outstanding premium will be due.
